114	Tasty Notes	Tasty Notes Presents: Cold Noodz	Friday — Sunday	1300 — 1600
Naengmyeon (rhymes with "Ten Ton"): Korean cold noodles in pickle broth with vegan/veg/omnivore options! Naengmyeon is a Korean cold noodle dish made with fermented radish broth and beef. If you came to our soft open last Flipside, I fucked up so much! I brought chopsticks for the barbarians but they were not Korean (i.e. waaaaay too long - but it was HILARIOUS watching y'all trying to use them to eat Korean food); I thought freezing the broths ahead of time was a genius move but it made it too salty; and somehow I came home with a ton of brisket that got lost in the bottom of a cooler. Despite all that, about 150 of y'all still came by last year, so this time it's back but optimized to better serve you COLD NOODZ!

Naengmyeon (rhymes with "Ten Ton"): Korean cold noodles in pickle broth with vegan/veg/omnivore options! Naengmyeon is a Korean cold noodle dish made with fermented radish broth and beef. If you came to our soft open last Flipside, I fucked up so much! I brought chopsticks for the barbarians but they were not Korean (i.e. waaaaay too long - but it was HILARIOUS watching y'all trying to use them to eat Korean food); I thought freezing the broths ahead of time was a genius move but it made it too salty; and somehow I came home with a ton of brisket that got lost in the bottom of a cooler. Despite all that, about 150 of y'all still came by last year, so this time it's back but optimized to better serve you COLD NOODZ!

Have you ever felt true love with strangers you just met? And what if we can all be here with nowhere else to get? You think that you aren't perfect. — I plan to prove you wrong.
